WON'T WED WITH OBEY VOW

Suffragist's Objection Postpones

Wedding Ceremony

Richmond, Va., Feb. 19.—Miss Besie S. Moss, suffrage leader, declined to subscribe to the word "obey" in the Episcopal marriage service, and in consequence her wedding to Albert E. Chamberlain, of New York, was postponed.

The minister who was to have officiated refused to leave out the objectionable word, and was sustained by his bishop. The couple withdrew the wedding invitations and will be married Wednesday by a Baptist minister who has agreed to respect the suffragist bride's objections.

Baby Hanged in Cradle.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 19.—Fallen out of her cradle while asleep, Pauline Carder, eight months old, was hanged between the bars. The child was dead when found by her mother.

SIGNS GOOD FOR MANEUVER CAMP

Gettysburg Looks Like a Winner for Maneuver Camp of Regulars and Militia this Summer. No Official Announcement.

The big camp of instruction for United States Regulars and the militia of the group of states including Maryland, Pennsylvania and several other states, may be held in Gettysburg this summer giving the town a month of activity similar to July 1910 when for thirty days several thousand troops were constantly in camp east of town. No official announcement to this effect has been made from the War Department at Washington, so far as can be learned, but allusions to a Gettysburg camp are made with more or less frequency in newspaper reports. Sunday's Baltimore Sun had the following:

"In answer to inquiry, Adjutant General Macklin has advised the War Department at Washington that Maryland will send as many troops as possible to a joint army and militia camp of instruction being planned for next summer."

"While nothing definite can be decided as yet, it is probable that two regiments of infantry, Troop A, Company A of the Medical Corps and the engineer corps to be organized by Lieut. Charles E. Phelps, Jr., will be sent to Gettysburg for 10 days' service in the field with regulars."

From the above there seems to be no doubt existing that the camp will be held here, the only question being the Maryland troops to be detailed. It will be recalled that this same system was followed two years ago—each state sending some of its militia for a nine days' period of instruction, their places being taken by other troops after their departure, the system being continued until the end of the camp. Some days ago the Frederick News spoke of the possibility of the camp being held here this summer and all things point to Gettysburg.

At the time of the 1910 camp it was admitted by all the men in charge that Gettysburg was ideal for camp and maneuver purposes. There was practically no sickness whatever among the soldiers other than the natural result of men getting overheated and eating large supplies of ice cream and green apples. The water supply was sufficient and satisfactory throughout the camp. The location of the camp was all that could be asked and the territory used for maneuvering was declared to be ideal.

There has been talk from time to time of the government buying permanent sites for these camps of instruction and Assistant Secretary of War Oliver, at the time of his visit to the camp in 1910, was asked what he thought of Gettysburg for such a purpose. His reply was "Your land is too valuable. It would 'bust' the bank."

But while it might be an expensive proposition to purchase ground it is known that Gettysburg is an economical place for camping purposes. The encampment of two years ago was, it is said, run at a saving over previous similar camps at other points. Railroad facilities proved adequate both in getting the soldiers here and taking them away and the camp was a success in every particular.

Though little has been said in Gettysburg relative to the maneuver camp some citizens have been giving the matter considerable time and thought and not all are allowing the chance of getting this big attraction to slip. That the efforts of the few energetic ones may meet with success should be the hope of all those concerned in the progress of the town.

Matters regarding the state division encampment are not likely to reach a head for a little time but Gettysburg is apparently to get this provided the necessary arrangements can be made at this place.

PREPARE FOR THE SPRING PRIMARY

County Commissioners Announce the Spring Primary which will be Held on April Thirteenth. Those to be Voted for.

The commissioners of Adams county have issued a proclamation in which they announce that the spring primary election will be held Saturday, April 13, next, when the several political parties will name candidates for congress, the general assembly and delegates to the state and national conventions. The proclamation declares that the election will be held in all the voting precincts in the county between the hours of 2 and 8 p. m. on that day.

The several political parties—the Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist and Keystone—have filed with the commissioners the necessary preliminary notices, entitling them to have ballots printed for use at the primaries. The delegate petitions are filed with the commissioners, while those aspiring for congressional and assembly honors have to be filed in the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, Harrisburg.

There will be eight delegates chosen to national conventions in this congressional district. The Prohibitionists will have three, the Republicans and Democrats each two and the Socialists one. Each of these parties elects as many alternates as delegates. The number of delegates to state conventions to be chosen in the county is 8. The Democrats are entitled to two; Republicans two; Prohibitionists two; Socialists one.

The chairman of the county committees of the different political organizations are required to file with the county commissioners the number of committeemen to be elected in the various districts in the county at the primaries. This is in accord with another requirement of the uniform primaries act.

The number of delegates to the conventions are computed from the general vote cast for the last governor and county chairmen notify the commissioners of the number to which their respective parties are entitled, and also as to the number of committeemen according to the party rules.

LAD'S NARROW ESCAPE

While a son of Edward Pont, Pen Mar, was at work at Lake Royer, a cake of ice on which he was standing turned turtle and the young man was precipitated into the water. He would probably have been drowned had it not been for the workman who was nearby with an ice hook in his hands. He caught the hook in the clothing of the unfortunate lad and pulled him upon solid ice and later sent him to a nearby neighbor's.

While two horses attached to a plow were being led by one of the men, the animals in turning, broke through the ice at a weak spot and plunged into the water about twelve feet deep. The man held on to the bridles of the animals and kept their heads above water while another plow was put to work cutting out a sufficient width of ice leading to shallow water, so as to enable the horses to swim to shore. After much difficulty the animals were gotten to the bank.

THAT COLLEGE STRIKE

The Harrisburg Telegraph sees fit to comment editorially upon a "threatened strike" among the students of Gettysburg College. Several Philadelphia papers last week published stories on a strike being threatened in the Senior class because one of its members had been expelled for cheating in examinations. The Seniors had no thought of striking, it is said, and the expelled member was re-instated after all his classmates promised to desist from unfair methods in examinations. What the "Telegraph" has to say is interesting nevertheless:

"Because a popular athlete of the class of 1912 has been expelled by the faculty for 'riding a horse,' which is the vernacular for using translations, the seniors at Gettysburg College threaten to go on strike."

"While it may be only natural that a young man of athletic tendencies should be fond of horseback riding, and while the loyal friendship of his classmates is to be commended, it is difficult to see how the faculty could have acted differently, or how it could renege its order of expulsion without grave injury to college discipline."

"It is not denied by the students that the horseman 'rode,' or that he had been duly warned of the punishment that would be visited upon him if he continued the exercises. The only argument advanced in his favor is that he was one of many who cheat in class and that it is unfair to single him out as a victim."

"If this same argument were advanced in criminal procedure, it would be pleasant for the burglars and murderers and highwaymen. We can't catch all of them. Therefore, it is unfair to punish the few we do catch."

"Nor are the proud parents, who are footing the college bills of their off-spring, in the belief that they are making their way bravely on foot through the classics, likely to find fault with the faculty for insisting that they shall walk or get out."

Kellam found the lion chewing the head of a chicken, which it had caught between the slats of the crate. He swung himself to safety on an overhead iron rod and worked himself into a position to seize the revolver Messenger Bull handed to him from behind a barricade of boxes. Kellam shot the lion in the head, killing it.

CHARGE PLOT TO DEFRAUD HERMIT

KEGS OF GOLD IN HOUSE

Floors Found Carpeted With Thousands When House Is Invaded by Doctors and Nurses.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 19.—In the Adams street court former State Senator Frank J. Gardner and George H. Decker, a trained nurse, accused of a plot to obtain the wealth of Samuel E. Haslett, a rich recluse, were held in $3000 bail each for examination.

Gardner was bailed out by a surety company. He refused to make public what his defense will be, but said that after he engages a lawyer he may have something to say in his own behalf. The nurse is in the Raymond street jail. He also refuses to put himself right in the matter until he gets the money to engage a lawyer.

Like a tale out of a musty old book is the story of this strange old man, who for twenty-five years has lived like a bat in a mansion once noted for its rich furnishings and collections of art, and which was often flooded with light and music and echoed to sounds of laughter.

In a quarter of a century no one but the old recluse is known to have crossed its portals until a few days ago, when illness brought Haslett, who is seventy-five years old, to the threshold of death, and then two men, who were strangers to him, procured a trembling signature which put them in possession of a fortune estimated at $1,000,000.

Haslett, member of a prominent and wealthy family, lived for many years as a man of riches with his wife in the great four-story brownstone house on Remsen street, until twenty-five years ago, when Mrs. Haslett's gown caught fire one night and she was burned to death. After she was buried Haslett dismissed all the servants, closed all the windows and blinds of the house and lived there alone.

Ten days ago the old man became ill. His old friend and lawyer, John B. Lord, learned of his illness and engaged Decker and another man to act as nurses.

As had been his daily custom, Lord went to his friend's home. To his surprise and mortification he was refused admittance by Gardner. Lord persisted in his efforts to enter the place, but the door was slammed in his face.

Lord immediately suspected that something was wrong and hurried to the office of Chief Magistrate Kemper, to whom he explained the case. The chief magistrate issued a summons, returnable forthwith, directing Haslett to appear in court.

With Detectives Roddy, Murray and Daly, Lord went to the house again, but they met the same fate as Lord did on his earlier visit. They were shown a power of attorney alleged to have been signed by the old man. After examining it very closely, Lord declared it to be a forgery. The quartet immediately repaired to the office of the chief magistrate, and upon Lord's solicitations the judge, with his stenographer and the police officers, went to the house to take a deposition from the sick man. Decker made some admissions that caused warrants to be sworn out.

The moment the physicians and nurses, who had been summoned, stepped into the place they almost swooned from the stifling atmosphere that rushed out to meet them. It seemed as if the house had never been opened, and the dust rose from the floor in clouds that filled the nostrils and lungs.

The magnificently furnished house was two inches thick with dust, and $10,000 in currency littered the floor. Was swept into corners or lay under thick filaments of dust in the hallways. There were two bushels of unopened mail overflowing from antique brass jardinières, and letters and parcels were tossed and heaped every where and then never disturbed.

There were boxes and kegs of gold and silver coins and there were thousands of richly bound books that had never been opened, heaping the various rooms in the great dismal dwelling.

After exploring the interior of the midwestern and dust-heaped mansion it was decided to assign the task of cleaning it to a vacuum cleaning concern, and before this was done it was necessary to go through the rooms with a rake and collect the coins and bills that were scattered everywhere. In some of the dust heaps were found bonds and certificates of stock, bundles of letters and time-yellowed manuscripts.

Several days ago the little girl fell in a bucket of water in a supposed faint, but she failed to regain consciousness, so the parents had her made ready for burial. Some of the neighbors came in to the funeral and one of them noted that rigor mortis had not really set in and that moisture was gathering on the glass of the tiny casket.

The body was hurriedly removed, and by the use of powerful stimulants the spark of life was fanned back. It is one of the strangest cases of suspended animation ever brought to notice in this section of the country.

LEGISLATURE SUBPOENAED
 Maryland Lawmakers Must Appear in Court.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 19.—The unusual spectacle of a state legislature summoned to court will be seen in the Baltimore court house on Wednesday.

Practically the entire legislature of 1910 will appear before Judge Bond in the now famous Warren case. Over a hundred witnesses have been subpoenaed for their appearance.

The Warren case has been in litigation since early in 1909, when the Baltimore water board entered into a contract with the Warren company to pay the latter $750,000 for a piece of land for a reservoir site, estimated by experts to be worth only $150,000. Public opinion forced the abrogation of the contract.

ONCE BANKER, SAYS BANDIT
 Court Holds Up Prison Sentence to Investigate Hunger Tale.

Kansas City, Feb. 19.—Fred H. Helmer, forty-four years old, who says that he once was a wealthy bank director, and who recently pleaded guilty to a charge of highway robbery, was sentenced to serve five years in the state penitentiary.

Sentence had been withheld by Judge Latchaw, of the circuit court, pending an investigation of the man's story.

On January 20, Helmer walked into a fruit store and pointing an empty revolver at the proprietor, secured what change there was in the money drawer. He told the court hunger had driven him to crime. He said he had been in Toledo and New York.

WIFE LEAVES; KILLS SELF
 Lawyer Commits Suicide After Disagreement With Wife.

New York, Feb. 19.—George F. Parsons, a lawyer, thirty-five years old, committed suicide by shooting.

Parsons had a large income from the estate of his father, the late George Parsons, who was a wealthy manufacturer of fireworks, and had a good practice at law.

His relatives say that he became despondent over a recent disagreement with his wife, which resulted in her and their six-year-old daughter living apart from him.

53 Hookworm Cases in One Town.
 Winchester, Ky., Feb. 19.—Fifty-three cases of hookworm have been found in the little lumber town of Ford, Ky., according to Dr. L. A. Shirley, who is making investigations under the auspices of the Rockefeller institute.

False Teeth Killed Her.
 Lander, Wyo., Feb. 19.—Mrs. Mary Lord is dead at Riverton. A few weeks ago she had a set of upper teeth made for her by a dentist. While she was asleep the teeth became dislodged, slid down her throat and choked her to death.

HOBSON STARTLES HOUSE

Wants 1,500,000 Envelopes to Send Out Prohibition Speech.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The Democratic economists of the house were startled when they discovered that Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Alabama, had made application for and was being supplied with a million and a half of envelopes, free of cost to himself, in which to send broadcast over the country copies of a speech he had made recently, advocating the adoption of an amendment to the constitution, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in the United States.

The million and a half envelopes will cost about $1200, it is estimated, which must be paid out of the contingent fund of the house, if Hobson's order is filled. Steps were taken by controllers of the house purse strings to shut down on filling the order.

It is customary for each house of congress to supply its members with a reasonable number of free envelopes for the circulation of copies of their speeches, the printing of the speeches being done at the member's expense. But never before has a member of either house, it is said, tried to "put over" an order for a million and a half envelopes, or any approximately large number.

REVIVES DURING BURIAL SERVICES
 Spark of Life Found in Baby at Funeral.

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 19.—After being prepared for burial and apparently devoid of life for two days, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mahollecck, who live on a farm near Black Duck, was discovered to be alive as the burial services were about to be held.

Several days ago the little girl fell in a bucket of water in a supposed faint, but she failed to regain consciousness, so the parents had her made ready for burial. Some of the neighbors came in to the funeral and one of them noted that rigor mortis had not really set in and that moisture was gathering on the glass of the tiny casket.

The body was hurriedly removed, and by the use of powerful stimulants the spark of life was fanned back. It is one of the strangest cases of suspended animation ever brought to notice in this section of the country.

Ask Your Neighbor

Hundreds of Gettysburg Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Gettysburg people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Gettysburg reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far away places. Read the following:

Mrs. Frank Tawney, 28 Breckenridge street, Gettysburg, Pa., says: Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with excellent results. I publicly endorsed them two years ago and hold just as high an opinion of them at this time. A member of my family was afflicted with kidney trouble for years and probably inherited it. This person suffered a great deal from pains in his back and sides and was unable to control the kidney secretions. A cold always aggravated the complaint. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I procured a box at the People's Drug Store and their use effected a complete cure.

REAL FIGHT TO OPEN THIS WEEK

Roosevelt Will Air His Political Views.

EXPECTED TO ENTER RACE

Former President's Followers Will Make Strenuous Efforts to Capture Delegates in New York, Ohio and Illinois.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The present week will open the real contest for the republican nomination for president. On Wednesday former President Roosevelt will address the Ohio constitutional convention at Columbus, laying down a declaration of his political views which will be accepted by his friends as the platform on which he will be a candidate for the nomination.

Later in this week's issue of the Outlook will appear a statement of Colonel Roosevelt's position with reference to the nomination for president which it is confidently stated by his intimates, will place him squarely and unequivocally in the race.

Preliminary to these formal matters which will initiate the campaign, the supporters of Mr. Roosevelt have been getting ready to start organized work, and there will be an instantaneous plunge into the midst of strenuous campaigning activities. It is understood that special attention will be given at the very outset to the three big critical states of New York, Ohio and Illinois. The Roosevelt managers believe if they can demonstrate early their ability to clean up the majority of delegates in each of these states, they will so break down the Taft campaign in the north that it will crumble to pieces, and a landslide to Roosevelt will be the result.

In all these states the situation is highly favorable to Roosevelt. Illinois especially, which a few weeks ago was considered in precarious condition, is developing a Roosevelt situation that gives great satisfaction.

Only four of the fourteen Illinois Republican congressmen have declared themselves for Senator Cullom; the other ten are non-committal or opposed. Cullom is the candidate of the Taft-Lorimer-Cannon-McKinley federal machine for the senate.

His fortunes are tied up with those of Lorimer and Taft; the three are running together, and it is difficult to judge at this time which is hurting most, Taft or Lorimer.

The Taft people are panicky over the exposure of their tie-up with the Cannon-Lorimer element, both in Illinois and in the nation, and over the deal with the old Cannon-Albright forces in congress, by which the whole Taft management has been placed in control of the old reactionary group.

Desperate effort is making among the organization managers to foster a split between the Roosevelt and the LaFollette Progressives. This went so far as the outgoing and wide circulation of a story that the Taft-McKinley organization had provided money to keep the LaFollette headquarters in Washington open.

It brought a caustic and very specific denial from Senator LaFollette's secretary, John J. Hannan, who declared that, aside from a few small contributions, the LaFollette fund had been provided by Congressman William Kent, of California; Gifford and Amos Pinchot, William Flinn, of Pittsburgh, and Alfred S. Baker.

There was intimation that action for libel might be started against the people responsible for the circulation of the story about McKinley financing, in part, the LaFollette movement.

T. R.'s Brother-in-Law For Taft.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Col. Charles Milford Hammond, of Upper Lake, Cal., arrived in Washington for a conference with Director McKinley, Secretary Hilles, Senator Perkins and others interested in President Taft's campaign for re-nomination. Colonel Hammond, who is a brother-in-law of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, has declared himself for President Taft's re-nomination. He said that California can and will be carried by the president.

Pinchot Shifts to Roosevelt.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Gifford Pinchot, in a signed statement, announces that he has withdrawn his support from Senator LaFollette's presidential candidacy and that he will hereafter advocate the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt. Mr. Pinchot declares that the events of the last month have made it apparent that Senator LaFollette's candidacy will neither hold the Progressive Republicans together as a fighting force nor prevent the nomination of "a reactionary Republican."

T. R. Leads in Nebraska Straw Vote.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 19.—A presidential preference poll taken by the Nebraska State Journal shows this result: Roosevelt, 1720; LaFollette, 371; Taft, 310; Cummins, 9; Beveridge, 10.

Dig Graves With Dynamite.

Warsaw, Ind., Feb. 19.—Dynamite is being used at Milford to dig graves in the cemetery. The ground is frozen to a depth of four feet. The sexton of the Warsaw cemetery is thawing out the ground for graves by using a plumber's steam outfit. The earth is frozen so hard that a pick and spade make little impression on it.

MRS. REGINALD BOLLES.

Former Wife of Captain Hains Weds an Artist.

CLAUDIA HAINS WEDS

Former Wife of Army Captain Is Bride of Artist.

Milton, Mass., Feb. 19. — Claudia Hains, former wife of Captain Hains, recently freed after serving a term in prison for shooting William Annis, is happy now as the bride of Reginald Bolles, the artist. They were married last Thursday.

The woman, who figured in one of the most talked of tragedies in the country, whose confessions of laxity at any army post while her husband was in the Philippines resulted in the killing of her admirer, is trying to forget, in a second honeymoon the mistakes of her past.

Mrs. Bolles seems to have forgotten the tragedy in which she was such a striking center. She seems to have grown young again; she seems to resemble the picture in her husband's charcoal drawing, with languorous eyes and long lashes and smiling cheeks and charming mouth and dark hair.

WOMEN'S VOTES MAY ELECT PRESIDENT

Equal Suffrage States Have 37 Electoral Ballots.

Washington, Feb. 19. — Women's votes may elect the next president of the United States, through the control of the majority vote in the electoral college by states now having equal suffrage.

This is the belief of Dr. William Tindall, a long-time friend of Susan B. Anthony, and vice president of the District of Columbia Equal Suffrage association.

In the next electoral college the woman suffrage states will control thirty-seven votes. According to Dr. Tindall's figures, six presidents have been elected to office by a smaller majority of electoral votes than are cast by woman suffrage states.

Besides the thirty-seven votes already controlled by the woman suffrage states, three states will vote on the question previous to the presidential election.

The legislatures of Kansas and Wisconsin have passed acts submitting the question to a vote of the people, and in Oregon the necessary petition has been filed for a vote on the question.

If these states should vote in favor of woman suffrage, twenty-seven votes will be added in the electoral college, as follows: Kansas, 10; Wisconsin, 12, and Oregon, 5, a total of 64 votes in the college of 531 electors.

DON'T WANT KNOX IN COLOMBIA

Secretary of State Tipped Not to Visit Republic.

DISPUTE OVER ARBITRATION

Minister's Suggestion That Knox's Visit Might Be "Inopportune" May Lead to Serious Situation.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Secretary of State Knox's trip to Central and South American republics for the purpose of developing friendly and cordial relations has been marred at the outset by an official snub from the diplomatic representative of the Colombian government in this city, Senor Pedro Nel Ospina.

The minister has advised Acting Secretary of State Wilson that Secretary Knox's proposed visit to Colombia is "inopportune," which is the diplomatic method of saying that Mr. Knox is not wanted in Colombia.

The minister explained, however, that he was acting on his own initiative in making this suggestion, and will ask his government for definite instructions.

He based his action upon the failure of the state department to make a reply to a diplomatic note which he submitted to the state department about three months ago, requesting the arbitration of the pending questions between the United States and Colombia.

The principal question in dispute between the two governments relates to the boundary line between Colombia and Panama, which has been unsettled since the secession of Panama from Colombia in 1903.

In view of the Colombian minister's note, Secretary Knox probably will abandon his proposed visit to Colombia. If the Colombian government upholds the stand taken by its minister here, it will create a serious situation between the two governments, which may result in the breaking off of diplomatic relations.

If the Colombian government, however, repudiates the action of its minister it will not remove entirely the embarrassment created by the publication of the minister's note.

While officials of the state department declined publicly to comment upon the note, they say that Mr. Knox probably will not visit Colombia as a result of the untoward incident.

This action, it was predicted in diplomatic circles, will most likely lead to the minister's recall. The language of the note may be decided by the state department as a personal affront to the secretary of state, in which case the Colombian government will be notified that he is persona non grata.

If this action should be taken and the minister's position should be supported by his government it would mean the severance of diplomatic relations and the minister would promptly be given his passports.

KEPT MARRIAGE A SECRET

Couple Married Nearly Three Years Ago Tell Friends.

Cambridge, Md., Feb. 19.—A marriage which the bride and bridegroom kept secret for three years was announced here by Mr. and Mrs. Herman John Insley.

Mrs. Insley formerly was Miss Marie Blanche McCormack, a teacher in the schools of Dorchester county, and Mr. Insley was an instructor in languages.

On June 6, 1909, the two went to Salisbury and were married by Rev. W. F. Ackison. On their return to the city they went home and said nothing to friends. Thereafter they were as attentive as ever.

Following the announcement, which created surprise, Mr. and Mrs. Insley left on a short honeymoon trip, now delayed three years. They will make their future home in Baltimore.

Marquette, Mich., Feb. 19.—Undrugged for six months, since an operation on her foot in Chicago, Dorothy Traubner, thirteen years old, is just coming from under the anesthetic and within two or three days, it is expected, will have fully recovered.

On three days ago the girl was constantly under the influence of the anesthetic, all efforts of physicians to remove the ether from her system being without result.

ECONOMY OF THE COW.

Under every condition where it has become necessary to produce human food economically the dairy cow has become the mainstay, because she more than any other animal is able to transform field crops into the largest quantity of human food.

The ultimate object of all live stock and farm labor is to produce food for the masses of humanity from the field crops. The different farm animals will produce from 100 pounds of dry matter in the form of field crops about the following:

The sheep from 100 pounds of dry matter will recover about 2.5 pounds of edible dry matter for human food.

The steer from 100 pounds of dry matter will recover about 2.7 pounds of edible dry matter for human food.

The hog from 100 pounds of dry matter will recover about sixteen pounds of edible dry matter for human food.

The dairy cow from 100 pounds of dry matter will recover about eighteen pounds of edible dry matter for human food.

Officials of the Canadian department of agriculture put the damage to sacked wheat in the western provinces at $2,000,000 annually.

WAY TO GAIN FLESH

There is only one way for thin, weak persons to gain flesh and strength and that is to eat and digest more food.

"But that's just the trouble," says one "I don't want to eat at all and the doctors say it does more harm than good to eat what I don't want."

That is true The thing to do is to get an appetite and good digestion. Miss Henrietta Huber, of the Bronx, N. Y., says on this subject: "I was very weak and had been for several months, so I thought I ought to take Vinol to gain strength. Since taking Vinol I have gained over 15 pounds in weight and my appetite is good. Now I am as strong as ever."

This is a remarkable case but there are thousands of others, proving that our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, is a certain body builder and strength creator. If you are weak and thin, you should by all means give yourself the benefit of Vinol for it will build you up and make you strong. We guarantee it to do this. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.
